Nolan Painting Holds Eighth Annual “Good Deeds Day”

Volunteers from Havertown-based company will spruce up two area senior communities

HAVERTOWN, Pa. – August 6, 2007 – Nolan Painting, Inc., a residential painting contractor and color consulting company based in Havertown, Pa., will hold its eighth annual “Good Deeds Day” on Saturday, August 11, 2007. This year, two deserving nonprofit recipients, the Havertown Center for Older Adults and Bryn Mawr Terrace Convalescent Center, will benefit from the time, labor and money donated by employees and friends of the company. The majority of Nolan Painting employees will participate in the projects.

The volunteers will be out in force early on the morning of August 11 to lend a hand at the two sites chosen as those in most need of repair. At the Havertown Center for Older Adults, located at 1105 Earlington Road in Havertown, painting and necessary repairs will be made to the main entrance and reception area as well as in the cafeteria, dietician’s office and art room. Similar work will be done at the Bryn Mawr Terrace Convalescent Center, located at Haverford and Rugby Roads in Bryn Mawr, with repairs being made to the center’s main entrance, main lounge and “Octagon Lounge.”

Volunteers will spend approximately five hours at both of the sites. M.A.B. Paints and the 3M company, key Nolan Painting business partners and supporters of the volunteer initiative, will donate paint and materials for the projects as well as the time of several of their employees.

“Giving back to the community throughout the year is a high priority for the entire Nolan team,” said Kevin Nolan, president and CEO of Nolan Painting. “Nearly all of our employees participate in our ‘Good Deeds Day,’ and I’m very proud of their commitment to volunteerism. We wouldn’t be where we are today without the support of local community members, and our work at these two sites is our way of showing our appreciation for that support.”

The annual “Good Deeds Day” is just one of many community activities in which the company participates throughout the year. Since 1998, Nolan Painting has hosted the annual Reindeer Romp 5K road race, which is held each December in Havertown. Last year’s Reindeer Romp raised more than $32,000 for the American Cancer Society. The event has raised nearly $125,000 since its inception.
